(Status: as at 16.09.2011 – subject to change)

Important General Notes

The permanent accreditations of the Bundespresseamt [Federal Press Office] are not valid on this occasion. Special registration was required for the Pope's visit (see Press Release no. 280/11 dated 8 August 2011). The registration deadline has now expired.

For access to all press events, a BPA event pass and a special pass are needed. If you have the BPA event pass but are not in possession of a special pass you may attend the services in Erfurt, Etzelsbach and Freiburg (Vigil and Eucharist) as a member of the congregation. For all media representatives, BPA event passes will only be issued against personal submission of a valid ID document or passport (please give the number of this when you book), together with the original note of confirmation from your editorial office.

The BPA event pass is valid for all event venues, and can be picked up from all press centres. The special passes can only be obtained at the place for which they are valid (Berlin, Erfurt, Freiburg – passes for Eztelsbach should be picked up in Erfurt).

The meeting point for security checks and admission to press events will be the local press centre at each location, unless stated otherwise. Individual entry to press areas is fundamentally not allowed.

The various events will be transmitted to the press centres live.

In view of security requirements and the limited space available, the TV reports at the various event venues will be managed by a host television transmitter. The material can be obtained directly from the broadcasting stations and/or the European Broadcasting Union (EBU).
